Assignment 10 – Due November 27, 2018

Please post project results by Tuesday 11:00 AM.

1. Reading: Lev Manovich "The Database"

   When Lev Manovich published his volume "The Language of New Media" in 2001 (MIT Press) it quickly became a key text in media studies as it discussed the properties of the so-called "new media" in relationship to older media formats such as film.

   a.   Read the first part of the section on the "Datatabase" as part of chapter 5 "The Forms" (Text on Stellar) and comment on our Github site.
   b.   Undergraduates: Please read pages 213 - 233
   c.   Graduates: Please continue reading to page 243

2. Project Updates:

   In our class after Thanksgiving, please present a working version of your digital prototype and write a summary of your updates on our Github site.

3. Happy Thanksgiving!
